

March 31, 1934

100-1000000000

Int. Cir.

100

Joseph A. Bell and David Bellin of United States Attorney's Office
Dallas, Texas

1000

Edward Bellin

I hope that while you are in Dallas you check Oswald's room at 1025 N. Lockley to determine whether certain rods were stored and, if they were, whether Oswald had any conversations with either Mrs. Johnston or Mrs. Roberts. I have been reading a document entitled "Oswald, the Impossible Assassin" by a French author who apparently visited Oswald's room and makes quite a point of the need for curtains in that particular room.

cc: Rankin
Williams
Rosenberg